Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Robin was a very spick and span little person: always neat and dapper, in fact a wee bit dandified, you might say. He lived in the East Country in a nice little garden belonging to a nice little house, beside a stream that went slowly through fields. The house was white-washed pink, and the roof was tiled with red like Robin s breast. He thought himself extremely beautiful, remarkably clever, and braver than anybody that ever lived. But his wife didn t agree with him a bit.
